

PETE DUNCAN
MACOUPIN COUNTY CLERK
P.O. BOX 107 CARLINVILLE, IL 62626

DEADLINE FOR GRACE PERIOD VOTER REGISTRATION ANNOUNCED

County News: March 11, 2011

Carlinville - Pete Duncan, Macoupin County Clerk, would like to remind voters that while the deadline to register to vote has passed, those needing to register or change their registration can still vote in the April 5th Consolidated Election through grace period registration and voting.

Duncan stated that grace period registration and voting will take place only at the County Clerk's office during office hours (8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.) located in the Macoupin County Courthouse at 201 East Main, Carlinville through March 29, 2011. Voters are reminder to bring a photo 10 at the time of registration. People who register during the "grace period" are not eligible to vote at their polling place on Election Day.

For more information about grace period registration and voting, contact the Macoupin County Clerk's Office at 217/854-3214, extension 707.
